

STORMWATER MANAGEMENT 101 - A THIRD THURSDAY SEMINAR

FEBRUARY 19, 2009 ♦ 8:30 AM – 4:30 PM

Mountain View Inn in the Rexburg Chamber of Commerce Building
420 W 4th S, Rexburg, Idaho

A great seminar for:

- ♦ City and County P&Z Administrators and Public Works Directors;
- ♦ Managers involved with drainage design criteria, approvals, maintenance, and overall management; and
- ♦ Engineers.

Cost and Payment

- ♦ Cost includes the conference room, morning break refreshments, lunch, instruction, and materials (beverages other than water are not provided).
 - Public agency employee or official - $35
 - Non-Public registrants - $450
- ♦ Payment in advance by credit card online or check, or at the door by cash or check.

Topics

- ♦ Policy
 - ♦ Stormwater Law (quality, quantity, location, and form)
 - ♦ Floodplain Administration (regulation pertaining to development)
 - ♦ Irrigation Facilities and Drainage
- ♦ Planning
 - ♦ Masterplans
 - ♦ Project Planning and Low Impact Development
 - ♦ Onsite Detention and Retention
 - ♦ Multiple-Use Facilities
- ♦ Criteria
 - ♦ Design Storm Event and Runoff Conditions
 - ♦ Major Drainage Systems
 - ♦ Quantitative and Qualitative Conformance
 - ♦ Master Drainage Plan and Reports
 - ♦ Grading Design
 - ♦ Final Grading and Drainage Plans and Reports
 - ♦ Submittal Requirements
- ♦ Maintenance
 - ♦ Maintenance Problems
 - ♦ Maintenance Responsibilities
- ♦ Overview of Drainage Hydrology and Hydraulics
(courses February 19, 2009 through September 17, 2009)

Presented by Gerald Williams, P.E., CPESC, CPSWQ, of WEI – see attached resume

Please RSVP by February 16 with Bill Moss at 359-5353 or bmoss @grwei.com